Dear Al:

I very much enjoyed meeting with you and discussing the Americans with Disabilities Act. As we discussed, this is an important topic nationally and one in which the Bureau of Prisons is very interested.

I appreciated hearing your views on this matter and was impressed by your qualifications as well as the information that you provided concerning your organization. The Institute for Law & Policy Planning has tackled a wide range of issues, including many with a strong corrections focus. Unfortunately, at this time the Bureau's needs do not coincide with the valuable services that your organization offers.

I will, of course, keep you and the Institute for Law & Policy Planning in mind should a suitable opportunity for our collaboration present itself. Once again, it was a pleasure to meet with you and I appreciate your time and interest in the Bureau.

Sincerely,
