To Whom It May Concern:

For those interested in a professional perspective of Dr. Alan Kalmanoff, I had the pleasure of working closely with him in a group of local criminal justice officials as we reviewed the complete criminal justice system in Omaha. I was particularly impressed with Dr. Kalmanoff's open mindedness and willingness to accomodate various personal differences which arose as individual operations were assessed.

As a result of his research and recommendations, a significant number of positive steps have been taken or are being planned to streamline the criminal justice system in our area. Dr. Kalmanoff and the I.L.P.P. provided a tremendous amount of useful information and expertise and in our case proved to be a great benefit.

Yours truly,

Martin J. Conboy III
