Alan S. Kalmanoff
Title of Workshop: _____Role Playing_____

Date of Workshop: ___10-26-92___ Time of Workshop: __10:15am__

The following totals represent a compilation of all evaluations from this class. (P = Poor; S = Satisfactory; E = Excellent)

		P	S	E
1.	Accuracy of program description	0	2	19
2.	Seminar content	0	1	20
3.	Presenters knowledge of subject	0	1	20
4.	Relevance of content to your needs	0	0	21
5.	Speaker effectiveness	0	1	20
6.	Usefulness of information acquired	0	0	21
7.	Opportunity for interaction, questions	0	2	19
8.	Overall opinion of session	0	0	21

Additional comments/suggestions about session: The topic and presenter were excellent, I would have enjoyed a longer session. More time needed.
Kal is one of the best choices for teaching this class. Instructor a high energy trainer, kept everyone's attention. Great use of weaving info from group to this program. Great, excellent. Very specific - great learning. More handouts, cards.
Good information. I immediately picked up on some items that I can use. As expected I got a new perspective & several new ideas for preparing and using role plays. Thank you!

Additional comments/suggestions about speakers: Well organized, engaging presentation. I especially liked the Intent-Impact model. Excellent. Very knowledgeable, knows his business & subject. Knew his stuff. Knowledgeable energetic, great presenter, the time flew by. Very good teaching skills. Need more time for role plays. Excellent speaker. I liked the idea that one teaching technique was zeroed in on and explained in detail.

What other issues would you like to see addressed at future conferences?

Domestic violence training. More on Kal and role play.

Would like to have seen a feedback model.