RE: INSTITUTE FOR LAW & POLICY PLANNING

Greetings:

This letter is to advise you that in the Fall of 1991, Washington County issued a Request for Proposals (RFP) for a corrections study. Five finalists were interviewed and Washington County chose the Institute for Law & Policy Planning for a comprehensive planning study of the Washington County corrections system. The initial RFP was then modified and expanded to provide for an overview of the County's criminal justice needs.

The ILPP team completed the resulting four volume study in a timely and professional manner.

Very truly yours,

John M. Junkin
County Counsel
